Where Architecture Meets the Mediterranean

When land and architecture fall in love, a luxurious villa that blends balanced aesthetics with functional design, nestled in the prestigious Jazmines residential area in Cumbre del Sol. This is one of Spain's most sought-after locations for those dreaming of a modern home with panoramic sea views.

Villa Indigo is a masterpiece of minimalist design, composed of geometric volumes that interconnect to create a striking visual harmony. Clean lines and cubic shapes define the architecture, delivering a contemporary facade that is both elegant and timeless.
