This renowned French gourmet restaurant has been successfully established in Jávea, Costa Blanca North for over 15 years and enjoys an excellent reputation among both local and international guests. Over the years, a loyal customer base has been built up that appreciates quality, service and consistency.

The restaurant is located on the outskirts of the city in an easily accessible area and is clearly distinguished by its exceptionally large capacity and the fact that the entire building is owned. This makes it a rare and particularly stable investment within the hospitality sector in Jávea.
